Application for Conditional Admission

Environment and Science Communication B.A.-M.A. Dual Degree Program

Complete this application to be considered for conditional admission to the Environment and Science Communication dual-degree program. Conditional admission allows an accepted student to begin graduate study during the student's final year of undergraduate study. Full admission to the M.A. in Mass Communication program requires a separate application to The Graduate School during the student's final semester of undergraduate study.

ESC applicants should be on track to complete the requirements for the B.A. in Environmental Studies program and pursuing a three-course minimum, minor or second major in the School of Media and Journalism.

This application is due in January of a student's third year of undergraduate study. Visit <http://esc.web.unc.edu/admissions> for this year's application deadline.

Honor Code

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill prides itself on honesty and integrity. Under the University's system of student self-governance, each student is responsible for obeying and supporting enforcement of the Honor Code. The Honor Code specifically prohibits lying, cheating, or stealing and any conduct that impairs significantly the welfare or the educational opportunities of others in the University community. For more information, visit: <http://honor.unc.edu>.

I agree to uphold the Honor Code.

Community Standards

In an effort to maintain a safe learning community, we must ask the following questions of all applicants. We cannot accept your application unless you answer these questions and provide the required documentation. Your "yes" answer to one or more of the following questions will not necessarily preclude your admittance; however, your failure to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment. For the purposes of the following questions, "crime" or "criminal charge" refers to any crime other than a traffic-related misdemeanor or an infraction. You must, however, include alcohol and drug offenses where or not they were traffic-related.

If you answer “yes” to any of the questions below, you are required to provide your own written explanation of the event and a statement from your legal representative summarizing the events and the final disposition of your case. If additional information is needed, you may be asked to submit additional information for a criminal background check at your own expense.

Have you been convicted of a crime? Yes No

If you answered “Yes” to the above question, please use this space to explain your response.

Have you entered a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, a plea of nolo contendere, or an Alford plea, or have you received a deferred prosecution or prayer for judgment continued, to a criminal charge? Yes No

If you answered “Yes” to the above questions, please use this space to explain your response.

Have you otherwise accepted responsibility for the commission of a crime? Yes No

If you answered “Yes” to the above question, please use this space to explain your response.

Have you ever been dismissed, suspended, expelled, or placed on probation, or otherwise subject to any disciplinary sanction by any school, college, or university?

This can include, but is not limited to, academic cheating, conduct violations, or alcohol policy infractions. If you answer ‘yes,’ in addition to your own explanation, you are required to provide a statement from an appropriate school official corroborating your summary of events. Yes No

If you answered “Yes” to the above question, please use this space to explain your response.

If you have ever served in the military, did you receive any type of discharge other than an honorable discharge?

Yes No – Never served Yes No – Currently serving

Yes No – Honorably discharged

You must promptly notify The Graduate School Admissions Office in writing of any criminal charge, any disposition of a criminal charge, any school, college, or university disciplinary action against you, or any type of military discipline other than an honorable discharge that occurs any time after you submit this application. Your failure to do so will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment.

I have read and understand this information.
